NEW HOSPITAL DEDICATED

State Methodist Conference Will Meet in Raleigh Next Week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., November 19.—The Supreme Court heard argument to-day in the famous case of State vs. Whedbee, from Union county, in which T. C. Whedbee, well-known editor and lawyer, is under sentence to two years in the penitentiary for false pretenses in that he induced W. C. Heath to give him $100 as an investment in the Securities Company, which was a fraud in connection with which Whedbee had a decided connection among business men in North and South Carolina about a year ago. The conviction and sentence were in Union Superior Court, before Judge W. J. Adams, last August. Attorney-General T. W. Hickett made the argument for the state in support of the conviction and sentence below, and the case for the defendant, appealing for a new trial on exceptions, was presented by Mr. Candler.

Railroad Suit on Appeal.
There was argument before the Supreme Court to-day in the case of Barden vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, from the Seventh District, in which the case for the appellant railroad company was presented by Junius Davis, and for the plaintiff appellee by Iredell Meares. In the trial below the railroad company entered a demurrer on the ground that the complaint was insufficient in that there was no allegation that the railroad company did not exercise reasonable care and diligence in the selection of surgeons, nurses and attendants in the hospital in which the injuries of the plaintiff were treated. The demurrer was overruled, and the case was remanded for a new trial. The railroad company is appealing from the decision of the trial court.

In rounding up his argument for the plaintiff, Mr. Meares declared that the action would be "the refinement of cruelty to the plaintiff, who has suffered a peculiar and mortifying injury, which will continue through life to give him pain and humiliation, and it would be a denial of his right to be heard merely to satisfy the technical spirit of an antiquated judicial procedure."

Evangelistic Work in County.
Dr. William Black, evangelist for the North Carolina Synod, is aiding Dr. W. McC. White, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in a series of special meetings at Mount Pleasant, in the county, in connection with systematic evangelistic work for the county that is being inaugurated by the men's society of the First Church.

An amendment for the charter of the Seneshore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, near Wilmington, has been filed with the Secretary of State, increasing the capital from $10,000 to $15,000. New Hospital Dedicated.
In connection with the dedication of Raleigh's splendid new $50,000 Rex Hospital just held, the announcement was made of a gift of $1,000 from Mrs. Florence Perkins Tucker. The exercises dedicating the hospital were especially notable, there having been addresses by Mayor J. S. Wynne, Dr. A. W. Knox, George W. White, donor of a splendid hospital for Durham; Dr. H. A. Hoyster and Hon. R. H. Battle, an active member of the board of directors of the hospital, since its establishment, and president of the board since 1914.

The trustees of the proposed Knights of Pythias Orphanage have awarded the contracts for the erection of the main building of the orphanage, which is to be located in Clayton, York and Cobb, of Greenville, being the principal contractors. There were twenty-four bidders for the contract.

N. C. PYTHIAN ORPHANAGE.

Contracts Awarded for Erection of First Building.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTE, N. C., November 19.—At a meeting of the trustees of the Pythian Orphanage, held here to-day, contracts were awarded for the construction of the first of the group of three buildings which will comprise the establishment. The contracts, general contractors were submitted, and the contract for the erection of the building, which will embrace a schoolroom, dormitory and infirmary, was awarded to York & Cobb, of Greenville, N. C. The plumbing contract went to Holder & Co., of Statesville, and the heating contract to the Crawford Plumbing and Supply Company, of Winston-Salem. Contracts call for the completion of the building by June 1, 1910. The entire group will cost $100,000.

DR. STILES IN GOLDSBORO.

Lecture on Hookworm Arouses Interest of His Audience.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 19.—The noted scientist, Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital, delivered a lecture in Goldsboro, N. C., at the Opera House to-night on the hookworm disease. Stereoscopic views were shown and the subject was thoroughly discussed in every phase.

Dr. Stiles was introduced by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Joyner, a member of the Rockwell Hookworm Commission, who outlined the plans and purposes of the commission.

Dr. Stiles' address made a great impression and enthused the people in the work of eradication of this disease.

Taylor—Grigsby.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., November 19.—Benjamin F. Taylor, of Richmond, and Miss Anna Mae Grigsby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Grigsby, of King George county, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. J. H. Newbliss, by the Rev. J. H. Grigsby, brother of the bride, and George W. Grigsby, best man. Other attendants were Misses Ethel and Bettie Allenworth, bridesmaids, and J. Cleveland Grigsby and R. J. McGinnis, groomsmen.

The ceremony followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for a bridal trip to New York and other points North, on their return they will reside in Richmond.

Cammack—Humphries.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., November 19.—Robert Cammack and Mrs. Bertie J. Humphries, both of Spotsylvania county, were married last evening at the home of J. H. Perry, in that county, Rev. Deatur Edwards, of this city, officiating.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION IN SESSION AT PORTSMOUTH

Practically Every Church in Virginia Is Represented.

Opening Meeting Last Night Attended by 600 Delegates.

By FRANK S. WOODSON.

PORTSMOUTH, VA., November 19.—Portsmouth is to-day and will be for four more days the Mecca of Virginia Baptists, the eighty-sixth annual session of the Virginia General Association being called to order at 7:30 o'clock to-night in the spacious auditorium of the Court Street Baptist Church, of which Rev. H. B. Garrett, pastor of the church, is president.

The delegates to the convention are from all parts of the State, with ecclesiastical powers and no instance whatever, to do "what seemeth unto them good for the furtherance of the kingdom," and yet these Baptists have a wonderful way of getting together and raising a lot of money for the missionary work, for charity, for education and for other proper purposes. Once a year the hosts in Virginia come together in general association to confer and talk over all the church and State problems, and informally they make plans and provide means for great work along all the lines that churchmen are versed in.

The volunteer reports that will come up during the session will likely show that the Baptists of Virginia have doing the most for the spread of the gospel, in not a little more, than any church in the State. One of the leading features of the convention is the annual report of the General Association, which is the "Baptist Orphanage," located at Salem.

to the average Virginia Baptist audience, and there was a general desire to hear him. The spacious church was packed to its utmost capacity. After the sermon, there was a kind of handshaking service, during which old acquaintances were renewed, and new ones made.

JUDGE WILLIAMS MADE NO PROMISE

Did Not Pledge Position to Kelley, and Is Considering Bibb's Application.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

TAKEWELL, VA., November 19.—Judge Samuel W. Williams, recently elected Attorney-General of Virginia, was in town to-day attending to legal matters, and was asked regarding the duties of Assistant Attorney-General, which he had promised to perform.

Mr. Williams stated that he had not
